PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE OPENS AT JOHNSTOWN ON WEDNESDAY

Rev. Greenlee Left Today To Be In Attendance

GIVEN SUNDAY ASSIGNMENT

The ninety-seventh session of the Pittsburg Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at Johnstown this week. The Conference reception will be held Tuesday evening in the Franklin Street church. This is the historic church that stood in the path of the great flood in 1889, but remained as one of the few buildings able to withstand that mighty inrush of waters. Many other buildings were saved by the risisting power of those great stone walls.

At the Conference reception a choir of a hundred voices will sing and a great orchestra will render music. More than 300 ministers, active and retired, will be in attendance at the Conference.

Bishop Francis J. McConnell will preside. One or more other Bishops will visit the Conference. Secretaries of various church organizations, and mission workers from many fields will attend. An evangelistic campaign, aiming to reach every industrial plant, shop and mill of that city, has been planned for the week.

On Sabbath day, October 10th, the more than 60 Protestant pulpits of the city will be filled by members of the Conference. The local pastor, Rev. E. H. Greenlee, will preach in St. Paul's Reformed church in the morning and speak at a reception for former pastors and their wives in the Grove Avenue M. E. church in the evening. Rev. Greenlee was pastor of this church for five years, removing from Johnstown to Coraopolis in 1912. Rev. Hartung, formerly pastor of the Charleroi M. E. church, is now pastor of Grove Avenue church.

Rev. Greenlee left for Johnstown today that he may be ready Wednesday afternoon to meet with the Conference Board of Stewards, of which he is a member. Mrs. Greenlee will accompany him to Johnstown and visit during the Conefrence among friends and former parishioners of Mr. Greenlee.

The local pulpit will be supplied next Sabbath morning by a representative of the National Reform Association. No evening service except Epworth League devotional meeting will be held.

Rev. John Owen Martin, who recently graduated at Garrett Theological Seminary, Evanston, Ill., and who is also an alumnus of Allegheny College, will accompany Rev. Greenlee to Johnstown. Mr. Martin has been recommended by the Quarterly Confrence of the local church for admission into the Pittsburg Conference. He will be ordained next Sabbath and be assigned to a charge at the close of the Conference

ASK INVESTIGATION OF BASE BALL POOLS

The Rev. Henry N. Pringle, assistant secretary of the International Reform Bureau, in a letter written on Monday to H. H. Brigham, foreman of the Cook county, (Ill.) grand jury which is investigating baseball gambling and bribery cases, asked that the grand jury investigate the alleged operations of baseball pools.

The regular meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet in the church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. 103t1*

TYPHOID INCREASES AT BENTLEYVILLE

Bentleyville's epidemic of typhoid fever, due to contaminated water in springs and wells, is increasing instead of dihinishing, four new cases being reported on Monday. There are now a total of 32 cases of the disease in the town.

Two Red Cross nurses are now employed there constantly, in caring for the sick because of thelarge number of new cases. One was ordered to Bentleyville at the beginning of the outbreak, but it was necessary to secure another during the past few days.

While there has been but one death, several of those now suffering from the disease are reported to be in a very serious condition. Every possible precaution is being taken to prevent a further spread. It is not believed the new cases have developed because of any laxity on the part of officials, but that they were due to contaminated water used before the outbreak and the testing of water.

Burgess H. L. Hetherington and other officials of thetown, asissted by a number of residents, are working strenuously to have the changes ordered by the sanitary engineer of the state health department, made within the allotted time. Only five more days remain to complete this work.

Water which has been tested and condemned is being placarded so that the general public will know not to use the contents of the various wells and springs found to be polluted with typhoid germs.

Rallies Will Be Held By The Christian Endeavorers

The Christian Endeavor Union of Washington County expects a winter of unusual activity. The President, MacDonald Weaver, of Canonsburg, and his splendid staff of officers are enthusiastic workers and especially desirous of holding up all the State standards. Their plans include rallies to be held in different centres of the county. The first of these will be at Ellsworth Presbyterian Church, Friday October 8 at 7:30 p. m. The principal speaker will be Rev. S. Wilmer Seitler, pastor of the Ingram Presbyterian Church, Ingram, Pa. The Reverend Beitler is an optimistic worker among young people and always inspires his audiences with a broad forward-look and co-operative spirit. Mr. MacDonald Weaver of Canonsburg, and W. S. Forgie of Washington will discuss County aims and standards. Special music will complete this program. A social hour will also be a feature of this first rally. This will give an opportunity for the workers to get acquainted.

Those desiring to go to Ellsworth will leave on the car which leaves Fifth street, Charleroi at 6:40 p. m.

The second rally will be held in the Washington Avenue Presbyterian Church of Charleroi, October 15. Committees are working on this program and John H. Clutter, President of the society of this church promises an interesting program which will be announced later.

BADLY HURT BY AN AUTO TRUCK

Harold Fitzmaurice, of 1167 Crest avenue, aged about 12 years, was run over by a truck of the Consumers Coal company, shortly before 9 o'clock this morning, near the Ninth street school, and had his right leg so badly crushed that it is expected that it will have to be amputated.

The truck, a big coal carrier, in charge of Norman E. Stoner, was on its way back to the mine at the time of the accident. It is alleged that the boy jumped on the truck and fell, one of the hind wheels passing over his right leg and badly crushing it. It is said the driver did not see the accident. The ambulance was called and Chief Albright took the boy to the Charleroi-Monessen hospital.

ROSCOE COUNCIL TO EMPLOY POLICEMAN

Stirred by the repeated complaints of rawdyism on the streets during the late evening hours, the borough council of Roscoe at a meeting held last Tuesday evening, decided to employ a policeman in order that lawlessness might be curbed. One night last week some "sporty" visitors in town indulged in a crap game on the street that resulted in the use of a gun by one of the participants. No person was injured, as all the shots went wild. The affair, however, caused considerable disturbance. This is not the only incident of which citizens in that borough complain, and now council has decided to stamp out the lawlessness and compel a better observance of the law.

RATIONING OF GAS URGED BY ENGINEER

Strict rationing of natural gas by communities to conserve the supply in this territory was suggested by Samuel S. Wyer, consulting engineer of the United States Bureau of Mines, in an address to representatives of women's clubs and civic organiations on Monday in the Bureau of Mines, Pittsburg, opening the educational campaign on gas conservation. By his plan, each city and town would be allotted each day a definite proportion of the gas available.

Mr. Wyer also urged the adoption and compulsory use of efficient burners in households, saying those now generally used give but 13 per cent efficiency. "There will never be adequate conservation," he continued, "as long as the price remains as low as it is today. With proper appliances, natural gas at 90 cents per 1,000 cubic feet would cost the domestic consumer no more than it now does at 30 cents."

It was decided, in connection with the educational campaign, to urge Gov. Sproul to issue a proclamation outlining the menace facing the people by the threatened exhaustion of the natural gas supplly.

COAL CAR SITUATION IS BECOMING NORMAL

The car supply for coal shipments in the Pittsburg district last week averaged 69 per cent, according to the Pittsburg Coal Producers' Association. The improvement, though gradual, is now sure and is regarded as certain to increase. The figures showed the Pennsylvania System averaged 43 per cent and the P. & L. E. 88 per cent, with other roads which supply the district at even higher figures. The Pennsylvania, it is said, is still contending with the inefficiency of labor.

POLICE RAID A GAMBLING ROOM

The police made a raid on a poker room in the rear of the pool room at Tenth street and Fallowfield avenue, Saturday night last and arrested a number of young men who were gambling. The names given at the police station were Joe Camer, Joe Erone, John Doe, James Pinto and Sam Joe. All of them left forfeits of $7.00 each for a hearing before the Burgess, but they failed to put in an appearance last evening. The police in making the raid confiscated the cards and chips, of which the room appeared to be plentifully supplied. The young men were informed that a repetition of the offense would call for a trip to Washington. From appearance, the room had been fitted up for the purpose of gambling.

Isaac Newton Wakefield

The community was greatly shocked this morning to learn of the very sudden and unexepected death of Isaac N. Wakefield of the Charleroi Iron Works, which occurred at his home, 322 Meadow avenue, Monday night at 8:45 o'clock. Mr. Wakefield was in his usual health Monday morning and was about his usual duties at the works up until noon, when he went home for dinner.

Immediately after dinner he was stricken with apoplexy, but remained conscious for something over an hour, during which time he conversed with his wife, telling her he realized his serious condition and that he would not recover. He gradually passed into unconsciousness and died at 8:45 o'clock last night.

Isaac Newton Wakefield was born in Preston county W. Va., November 27, 1865, the son of Robert and Elizabeth Wakefield, and of ten children, seven sons and three daughters. Before coming to Charleroi Mr. Wakefield was engaged in mining operations and was familiar with the coal business.

In 1905 he established the Charleroi Iron Works, and at the time of his death was President and Manager. Under his management the company prospered, and when he was stricken was busy with plans for the new buildings about to be erected on the site of the old brick works at the lower end of the town.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anna Wakefield and one daughter Ethel; six brothers, Thomas of Charleroi, James of Maryland, Robert of Albrightsville, W. Va., and John, David and Samuel of Friendsville, W. Va., and three sisters, Sarah and Martha of Friendsville, W. Va., and Mrs. Mary Harnid of Fairchance, Pa.

Funeral services will be held at the late home 322 Meadow, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in charge of Rev. R. B. Campbell, of the Free Methodist church, assisted by Rev. R. A. Zahniser, the incoming pastor. Interment will be made in Monongahela cemetery.

TWO DONORA ROD MILLS ARE DOWN FOR NEEDED REPAIRS

Will Not Result in any Men Being Laid Off, as All Will Be Employed

FOUR WEEKS TO MAKE REPAIRS

Numbers One and Two rod mills of the Donora Wire Works were shut down on Monday morning for the much needed repairs which have been postponed from time to time during the past year. It has always been customary to shut down the finishing mills at the Donora plant for from four to six weeks each summer for an overhauling and a tuning up of the engines that haul the mills.

Since 1917 however the demand for rods has been so heavy that it was impossible to close the mills for repairs, and the shutdown was postponed from time to time until this week, when it became absolutely necessary to make repairs in order to keep the mills operating efficiently. The Number Three mill, however, will be kept running while the other two are under repair.

In other years the shutdown has thrown a large number of highly paid workmen out of employment, but this year these men are being kept at work on other jobs around the plant, and in making the repairs, so that the shutdown will not afect the material well being of the community and summounding districts as it has in years past. It is estimated that at least four weeks and perhaps longer will be required to make the necessary repairs.

INJURED BY FALL OF SLATE THIS MORNING

Samuel Fletcher, employed as a shot firer at the Charleroi mine of the Y. & O. Coal company, had an ankle broken while at work this morning by a fall of slate and roof coal. He was brought in the ambulance to the office of r. Davis, where the break was put in a plaster cast, and then taken to his home at 1001 Crest avenue.

COX'S SMARTNESS.

The manner in which Governor Cox managed the Scripps exemption cases, as disclosed by the Senatorial inquiry into campaign funds at last week's sitting of the committee in Washington, was further evidence of the smartness which Senator Harding attributes to him.

It seems further that Robert Scripps, aged 25, who was a witness before the committee, and his brother, James G. Scripps, sons of the wealthy owner of the Scripps league of 21 newspapers, were exempted from military service during the war as a result of the efforts of Governor Cox who wrote a letter, not directly to President Wilson, but to Earl Martin, head of the Scripps service, through whom it got to President Wilson. The exemptions were the personal acts of President Wilson, for which the head of the Scripps League is duly grateful.

This matter was before the public in the Ohio gubernatorial campaign in 1918 when Governor Cox issued the following statement:

"I never wrote, or spoke a word to the President, the Secretary of War, or to any draft board, asking the exemption of Mr. Scripps, any one of his organization, or any one else."

That formal statement was evidence that Governor Cox had sufficient foresight when he wrote the letter to Mr. Martin, so as not to be embarrassed as a result of his efforts to secure accommodation for a friend.

Young Mr. Scripps had a position with the Scripps League that was created for him directly after the declaration of war. It was because of his vital realationship to the Scripps organization in this office that he was sent back home from camp after having been drafted.

The interest of Pa Scripps, his 21 newspapers, his feature syndicate, and other agencies that he can influence, in the campaign of Governor Cox has been ascribed to his gratitude to the Governor, and certainly that is a natural conclusion.

"PREVENT FOREST FIRES—IT PAYS"

It does not seem the part of wisdom for Vermont to import Maple Syrup, for Iowa to import Corn, or for Florida to import Oranges. Neither does it seem reasonable that Pennsylvania should import Lumber. But she does this very thing, and pays the freight on it, too.

Pennsylvania lumber consumers pay in freight for lumber, alone, more than twenty five million dollars each y ear. In 1860 ours lead all other states in the production of Lumber. Today we are manufacturing only one third of what we use and are growing one tenth as much.

Pennsylvania, being a mountainous State, should produce all the timber it uses and should supply a good share for her sister states. But this cannot be as long as Forest Fires continue to make us one hundred million dollars poorer each year.

There is a brighter side, however, to look upon. More than nine tenths of this one hundred million dollars loss is the result of carelessness and thoughtlessness and can be eliminated by merely practising caution with fire in the woods. That this loss may be reduced to a minimum, Governor Sproul and Commission Pinchot urge that you do your bit in educating the people of Pennsylvania to use great care with Fire in woodlands Help PREVENT FOREST FIRES—IT PAYS.

"MACING" THE WOMEN

Few things thus far during the campaign have made so disagreeable an impression as the testimony brought out before the Kenyon committee while at Chicago to the effect that the Democrats of South Dakota have "maced" the women employes of the Internal Revenue Department in that state $40 each for Democratic campaign purposes. A few more revelations of this kind will make the Democratic presidential candidate believe that his 'smoke screen" has turned into a high explosive bomb which will blow into the hereafter the hopes of himself and his party.

Senator Underwood says that a quarter of a million dollars was spent against him in the recent Alabama Democratic primary, but it will not do to let the Senatorial investigating committee take the matter up, because it might lead to federal interference in Southern elections; in other words, to honesty in elections in Democratic states It would evidently be unconstitutional for the Senate investigating committee to take up a primary scandal that would burn the fingers of Democratic politicians, in their opinion. Such probes are for Michigan and not for Alabama.

EXPLAINS WHY HE IS FOR HARDING

Gifford Pinchot, prominent in the Progressive movement of eight years ago as a supporter of Theodore Roosevelt, and who has been a close observer of political events throughout his life, in a public statement, tells why he is supporting Senator Harding, the Republican nominee for President, in the present campaign:

To the Editor:

So many former Progressives have asked me why I am for Harding that perhaps your readers might be interested in my reasons. Here they are:

I am a follower of Theodore Roosevelt alive or dead. While he was here I worked with him and supported him. Now that he has gone to his reward, I stand for the principles and work for the things for which he worked and stood. I am a Roosevelt Republican.

Had he lived my choice for the Republican nominee and for the next President would have been Theodore Roosevelt. But only the spirit of Roosevelt is with us still. The Republican Convention has perforce chosen another candidate. I can not have what I wanted. That, however, is no reason for throwing my vote away.

Senator Harding and I have opposed each other in politics. He was regular in 1912, while I followed Roosevelt: and I can never be glad enough that I did. He said things about Roosevelt that I deeply resented; I have said things about Harding that he must have resented just as deeply: and I have not forgotten. He has many friends who are not mine, and there is not a little in his record that I regret. On the other hand, I find deep in his confidence men whom I trust: what I like least in his record is farthest back: and what he has said about Forestry, Conservation, and Agriculture at Marion is sound and right.

Senator Harding was not made to my order, but he is by no means the reactionary I thought him. He is a Republican Regular, who supports what his Party agrees on, and acts with the majority. There is nothing secret about him Under him there will be no one-man rule at Washington. Congress will represent not the President but the people, and the government will be American again.

Harding is no superman but simple earnest sincere and human, best thought of by those best known to those who know him and in whose judgment I rely. I am slow to decide, but having decided stands like a stone wall. What I saw at Marion confirms it. I liked Harding be-

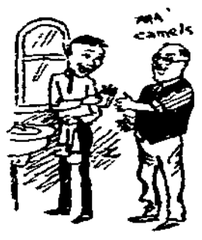
Camel CIGARETTES

HOWDY PETE!



Always learn something when I head into this old town. Passed my deck of Camels to a fine, business-looking citizen in the Pullman dressing room this morning and this opened up a conversation. Listen, Pete, that man talked the Camel language according to Hoyle!

"Camels are the very quintessence of cigarettes" said this party. Pete, get that word? It fits—it spreads the news—it spills the whole Camel story! And, if you don't get what I'm driving to you, look up the word in Webster's! Why, Uncle Dan put it there when he dreamed Camels were coming! That man slipped into one word:—mellow-mild-body, no cigaretty aftertaste, no cigaretty odor—and—the best cigarette in the world at any price!

Pete, why do you hear men of all types everywhere actually boosting Camels? That's because they know Camels are right! They know from Camels flavor that Camels have the quality—and—they know that Camels blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos makes the most delightful cigarette any man ever put between his lips!

Old oil well, I'm no gusher, but the way Camels are going to more and more men every one of the seven days in every week is a sight to see!

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THE COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, AT THE ELECTION TO BE HELD ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1920, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eleven of article sixteen of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amend section eleven, article sixteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

"No corporate body to possess banking and discounting privileges shall be created or organized in pursuance of any law without three months' previous public notice, at the place of the intended location, of the intention to apply for such privileges in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, nor shall a charter for such privilege be granted for a longer period than twenty years," so that it shall read as follows:

The General Assembly shall have the power by general law to provide for the incorporation of banks and trust companies and to prescribe the powers thereof.

Number Two.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Article nine, section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof.—

That article nine, section eight be amended to read as follows:

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as provided herein, and in section fifteen of this article, shall never exceed seven (7) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, but the debt of the city of Philadelphia may be increased in such amount that the total city debt of said city shall not exceed ten per centum (10) upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two (2) per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the consent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law. In ascertaining the borrowing capacity of the city of Philadelphia at any time, there shall be deducted from such debt so much of the debt of said city as shall have been incurred, or is about to be incurred, and the proceeds thereof expended, or about to be expended upon any public improvement or in the construction purchase, or condemnation of any public utility, or part thereof or facility therefor, if such public improvement or public utility or part thereof, whether separately or in connection with any other public improvement or public utility, or part thereof, may reasonably be expected to yield revenue in excess of operating expenses sufficient to pay the interest and sinking-fund charges thereon. The method of determining such amount so to be deducted, may be prescribed by the General Assembly

In incurring indebtedness for any purpose the city of Philadelphia may issue its obligations maturing not later than fifty (50) years from the date thereof, with provision for a sinking-fund sufficient to retire said obligations at maturity, the payment to such sinking-fund to be in equal graded annual or other periodical instalments Where any indebtedness shall be or shall have been incurred by said city of Philadelphia for the purpose of the construction or improvements of public works or utilities of any character, from which income or revenue is to be derived by said city, or for the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of wharves or docks owned or to be owned by said city, such obligations may be in an amount sufficient to provide for, and may include the amount of, the interest and sinking-fund charges accruing and which may accrue thereon throughout the period of construction, and until the expiration of one year after the completion of the work for which said indebtedness shall have been incurred; and said city shall not be required to levy a tax to pay said interest and sinking-fund charges as required by section ten, article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, until the expiration of said period or one year after the completion of said work.

GO NO FARTHER

The Evidence is at Your Door.

Charleroi proof is what you want and the statement of this well respected resident will interest you. Mrs. Geo. Arnold, 821 McKean Ave., Charleroi, says: "The first symptom of kidney trouble I had was a dull, heavy aches across my back. I felt run down, tired-out feeling that made me feel of no account. Every time I stooped over it almost took my breath away to straighten up again, and then I would become dizzy and black specks would appear before my eyes. My kidneys acted irregularly which caused me a lot of annoyance, too. I was told to try Doan's Kidney Pills so I got a supply and after taking a few doses my back felt strong again. I continued the use of Doan's until I was cured of my trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Arnold had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THE COMMONWEALTH, FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One-A.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article three (III) of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That article three be amended by adding thereto the following:

Section 34. The Legislature shall have power to classify counties, cities, boroughs, school districts, and townships according to population, and all laws passed relating to each class, and all laws passed relating to, and regulating procedure and proceedings in court with reference to, any class, shall be deemed general legislation within the meaning of this Constitution, but counties, cities and school districts shall not be divided into more than seven classes, and boroughs into not more than five classes

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section one, article eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1 Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section one of article eight, which reads as follows:

"Section 1. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject, however, to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

"First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

"Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or, having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months), immediately preceding the election.

"Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

"Fourth. If twenty-two years of age and upwards, he shall have paid, within two years, a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months, and paid at least one month before the election," be amended so that the same shall read as follows:

Section 1. Every citizen male or female of twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject, however, to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

First. He or she shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He or she shall have resided in the State one year (or, having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the State, he or she shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months), immediately preceding the election

Third. He or she shall have resided in the election district where he or she shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

Fourth. If twenty-two years of age and upwards he or she shall have paid within two years, a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election

Fifth. Wherever the words "he," "his," "him," and "himself" occur in any section of article eight of this Constitution, the same shall be construed as if written, respectively, "he or she," "his or her," "him or her," and "himself or herself."

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section one (1) of article fifteen (XV) of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met. That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section one of article fifteen, which reads as follows:

"Section 1. Cities may be chartered whenever a majority of the electors of any town or borough having a population of at least ten thousand shall vote at any general election in favor of the same," be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Cities may be chartered whenever a majority of the electors of any town or borough having a population of at least ten thousand shall vote at any general or municipal election in favor of the same. Cities, or cities of any particular class, may be given the right and power to frame and adopt their own charters and to exercise the powers and authority of local self-government, subject, however, to such restrictions, limitations, and regulations, as may be imposed by the Legislature. Laws also may be enacted affecting the organization and government of cities and boroughs, which shall become effective in any city or borough only when submitted to the electors thereof, and approved by a majority of those voting thereon.

Sterling Tires

Some tires help the appearance of the car. Look at the STERLINGS on your friend's machine and you'll see what we mean.

If you want to know just how good a tire can be put a STERLING on your right rear wheel and keep air in it. Thus you will discover the secret of

"HIGH MILEAGE AT LOW COST"

Surely—there are other good tires. If you can't get STERLINGS you need not stop riding, but you ride longer at less cost if you buy from a STERLING dealer.

We were recently appointed direct factory distributors for STERLINGS in this territory—and we would not sell a tire we could not recommend for satisfactory service.

SHIPPING IRON PRODUCTS BY RIVER

The National Transportation Company, owners of the steamers Winnifred and Tide, has taken contract to deliver a consignment of rods for making tubes to the new mill at Allenport. These rods are loaded in barges and flats at McKeesport and towed to Allenport, where they are unloaded at the company's dock. During the month of September 850 tons of this material was delivered by the Transportation company, and the shipments will likely continue.

Shipments of bulk freight is becoming quite common by water these days, and during the past few months thousands of tons of iron and steel products have been shipped from the Pittsburg district to points in the southwest. The prospects are that river interests will pay greater attention to this feature in the future than ever before, although years ago the shipment of steel rails as well as coal by water was a very common thing. One of the pioneers in this line of business was Gray's Iron Line, which operated a line of steamboats and model barges out of Pittsburg to points along the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

IS A MERRY WIDOW

Since taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy three months ago my bowels have moved regularly and I am feeling well again. I am now a happy woman." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

RUN DOWN AND KILLED BY AUTO

As the result of being run down by an automobile on the streets at 5 o'clock Sunday morning, Duncan Matthewson, aged 29, of Elco, died at his home at 2:00 o'clock the same afternoon, having been hit by a machine driven by John Cairns.

A party of young men, including Cairns and Matthewson, had been driving about the streets of Roscoe Saturday night and Sunday morning, when a brother of Matthewson and two others left the machine and started to walk to their home. Duncan Matthewson, who had also got out of the car, said he would wait for Cairns and ride home with him.

When Matthewson saw the car coming he jumped out suddenly into the street, directly in front of the car and threw up his sands to hail Cairns. Matthewson's action was so sudden that Cairns did not have time to stop his car, but ran Matthewson down. The unfortunate man sustained a fractured skull as well as internal injuried and lived until the afternoon of the same day.

No arrests have been made in connection with the accident, nor has there been any move made on the part of the authorities to make any investigation, according to reports from Roscoe today.

cause he dodged nothing, looked me straight in the eye, and unmistakably meant what he said. And I liked Mrs. Harding even better.

I want to see Harding elected not only because I have come to think well of him, but because he belongs to the Party of Lincoln and Roosevelt, and because I have had my fill of the Democrats at Washington. We must have in charge men and a Party capable of running the government, and in the White House, a President, not a boss.

Cox is in bad company. The liquor men are for him. He stands with Baker, who refused to prepare when he knew that war was sure to come, and therefore sent against the German machine guns thousands of young Americans untrained or half-trained, and without artillery support.

Cox stands with Palmer, who promised to reduce the cost of living and conspicuously failed, but for political reasons let the liquor traffic go on; who denied the rights of free speech and free assembly; imprisoned hundreds of people in defiance of the law he has sworn to enforce; and turned over to the Southern Pacific railroad without a struggle five hundred million dollars worth of oil lands in California to which it had no right. That Palmer was seriously considered for the nomination at San Francisco shows how low the Democrats have fallen. There may have been more unfaithful public servants than Mitchell Palmer but not many.

Cox stands for Wilson. No sooner was he nominated than he hastened to the White House, and authorized the statement that there was perfect agreement in all things between Wilson and himself. Nothing is more important than to have done with the Wilson clan, and the only way to do that is to vote against Cox.

The people of the whole earth have learned at bitter cost that what Wilson says is no indication of what he has done or what he will do; that his words and his actions do not match; and that to have his own way is more important in his eyes than the safeguarding of America, the welfare of Nations, or the saving of human lives.

If a man believes in Wilson, argument is useless. . . for me. I hold that it is time to finish with all that smacks of Wilson, with the inefficiness, with the National and International blundering, and with the impudent assumption of wisdom and righteousness beyond human.

Finally, Cox is too reckless in statement, too shifty in argument, too much like a man running for a little office in a little town. His speeches shout it aloud—Cox is too small to be President. Harding's speeches could have come only from a man big enough to handle the job.

Sincerely yours.

Gifford Pinchot.

CHARGE REVENUE MEN WITH AUTO THEFT

After seizing an automobile and a quantity of "jakey" Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock and placing the owner, George Klis, in the Fayette county jail, Leo Williams and Frank Lord, two revenue officers, working in Uniontown on Saturday last were arrested Saturday midnight by officers from Alderman John W. Darby's office, charged with larceny of the automobile. The officers are alleged to have been using the car for their own pleasure. They were seen driving on the streets of that city late in the evening by the owner of the Ford in question, who had secured his release from jail on bail, and as soon as he spied his car with the revenue men apparently enjoying themselves in his property. Klis made information against them, charging larceny. The revenue men gave bail in the sum of $500 for a hearing
